The states' radon legislation was primarily extracted from the Environmental Law Institute's Indoor Air Quality/Radon database found at www.elistore.org/Data/products/iaq_radon_database-2010.pdf and it is summarized in the table on the last page of this document. The eight areas of state radon policy are:

- Radon Professional Licensing
- Radon Building Code for New Homes
- School Radon Testing
- Radon Building Code for New Schools
- Day Care Radon Testing
- Signed Radon Notification in Home Sales
- Signed Radon Notification in Leases
- Government Building Radon Testing

The map and table offer indications of radon policy successes as well as opportunities for progress.
